East (PCE). He was discharged from PCE on April 30, 2020, and a supervision intake was completed on May 5, 2020. At that time, he acknowledged an understanding of the conditions imposed by the Court, to include mandatory condition number 1, noted above.

On June 10, 2020, following the filing of a petition alleging a number of violations of supervised release, a warrant was issued for Mr. Reyes' arrest.

On November 6, 2020, Mr. Reyes was arrested and charged with possession of a controlled substance, methamphetamine, and possession of a controlled substance, marijuana. He was ultimately released, and his U.S. Marshal warrant remained active.

The probable cause statement from the Grant County Sheriff's Office (GCSO) indicated, on December 20, 2020, GCSO responded to a residential burglary that had occurred in Quincy, Washington. The reporting party observed a gray Toyota Camry leaving the residence. The vehicle was observed by the GCSO and they activated their emergency lights and siren and the vehicle failed to stop. The vehicle continued to speed and then ran a stop sign. After running through another stop sign, it became airborne, but proceeded to elude officers, then ran another stop sign, and eventually the driver, later identified as Joey Reyes, ran from the vehicle. He was eventually apprehended and taken into custody.

The passenger was identified as Blanca Perez. Ms. Perez told deputies that Mr. Reyes had walked out of a residence with a television, but could not provide the current location of the television, other than "on a canal bank somewhere."

Deputies then interviewed Mr. Reyes after he was read his Miranda rights. Mr. Reyes acknowledged knowing the deputy was behind him with his emergency lights on. The vehicle Mr. Reyes was driving was noted to be stolen. Mr. Reyes indicated he thought he bought the vehicle, but also advised he would not be surprised if it was stolen. Due to Mr. Reyes reporting drug use, he was transported to the hospital by emergency medical technicians for medical clearance.

The victim of the residential burglary advised deputies that they had observed a gray Toyota Camry leaving the area of their residence. They also observed a passenger in the back seat who was holding a television. The victim then observed that their residence had been broken into, and the television had been stolen.

Mr. Reyes has been charged in Grant County Superior Court, under case number 20-1-0056-13, with residential burglary, possession of a stolen vehicle, and attempting to elude a police vehicle.
